

Fruits in Okayama

Okayama is home to a variety of fruits such as peaches, grapes and strawberries because its weather is mild and good for those fruits. The nickname of Okayama is “Fruit Kingdom.”

Many fruits in Okayama are famous around Japan. Okayama’s white peaches have a pleasant smell and elegant sweetness. They are known to have the best flavor in Japan. You can enjoy picking peaches in summer at many fruit farms in Okayama. The autumn harvests of each fruit farm are popular with both children and adults. You can also try many kinds of grapes in Okayama, such as Muscat of Alexandria, Shine Muscat and Pione. Strawberries in Okayama are also famous. You can enjoy them from December to May.

Why don’t you come to Okayama to enjoy some seasonal fruits?

<130 words>

