

(A) Kurashiki Bikan Historical Quarter

Do you know Kurashiki Bikan Historical Quarter? It is one of the most beautiful shopping areas in Japan. In the Edo period, 300 years ago, the town was growing. It has many of the old buildings of a Japanese town with the white walls of that time. It also has old, Western-style buildings. There are cultural places such as the Ohara Museum of Art, Kurashiki Ivy Square, the Kurashiki Museum of Folkcraft, and the Kurashiki Archaeological Museum. The area is a quiet place with nice restaurants, galleries and stores. Not only Japanese tourists, but also international tourists visit this town. They can enjoy the beauty of a Japanese shopping town of the old days. Why don't you come to this beautiful area and enjoy a quiet and relaxing time?
